Chapter 3 — Try this one on

This chapter at a glance

주제	Topic 물건 사기 — buying things
어휘와 문법	Vocabulary & grammar 옷, 신발 관련 어휘 / 명이나 / 동-어 보다 — words for clothes and shoes · offering a choice between things · trying something out
활동	Activities 옷 가게에서 옷 사기, 사고 싶은 옷 소개하기 — buying clothes in a shop; describing something you want to buy
문화와 정보	Culture & information 한국의 전통 시장 — Korea's traditional markets

This is the most immediately useful chapter so far. Buying clothes is a conversation you will have within days of arriving, and unlike introducing yourself it cannot be rehearsed as a single speech — the shop assistant asks questions and you have to answer them. Learn the two grammar points as things you say, not as forms you conjugate.

The two grammar points divide the conversation between you. 명이나 gives the customer a way to name two acceptable options — 정장 치마나 바지 — while 동-어 보다 is what the assistant says back: 한번 입어 보세요. The chapter title is the assistant's line.

Korean uses a different verb for each way of putting something on. 입다 for clothing on the body, 신다 for anything on the feet, 쓰다 for the head and face, 하다 for accessories. English gets by with 'wear' for all four, so this is the one place in the chapter where the vocabulary is genuinely harder than it looks.

도입

Warm-up

이 사람들은 가게에서 무엇을 사요?

What are these people buying in the shops?

여러분은 요즘 무엇이 필요해요?

What do you need at the moment?

What the original page shows

시장 (00옷, 00가방, 00신발)

a market arcade — a mother and daughter holding up a dress, with shops signed 옷, 가방 and 신발

신발 가게

a shoe shop — a man examining a trainer he has taken out of its box

가방 가게

a bag shop — a woman comparing two suitcases

Notice the shop signs: 옷, 가방, 신발. Korean shop names are often just the thing sold, with no word for 'shop' at all. Reading those three words off a sign is the first practical skill this chapter gives you.

필요하다 means 'to be needed', and what you need takes 이/가, not 을/를 — 무엇이 필요해요?, 신발이 필요해요. It behaves like an adjective in Korean even though English makes it a verb with an object.

어휘와 문법 1

Vocabulary & grammar 1

무엇을 신었어요? 무엇을 썼어요?

What is on their feet? What is on their head?

쓰다 — on the head and face

모자 hat, cap

선글라스 sunglasses

안경 glasses

안전모

hard hat, safety helmet

헬멧 helmet

신다 — on the feet

운동화 trainers

부츠 boots

샌들 sandals

슬리퍼 slippers

구두 dress shoes

작업화

work boots

쓰다 and 신다 are not interchangeable. 모자를 신다 is as wrong as 'wearing a hat on your feet'. Learn each item together with its verb from the start — 모자를 쓰다, 운동화를 신다 — because relearning the pairing later is much harder than learning it now.

안전모 and 작업화 are here for a reason. Many learners on this programme work in factories or on building sites, where 안전모를 쓰세요 and 작업화를 신으세요 are instructions you will actually be given. They are safety words before they are vocabulary.

이 신발이 어때요?

How do these shoes fit?

치수(사이즈)가 작다

the size is too small

치수(사이즈)가 크다

the size is too big 치수(사이즈)가 잘 맞다

the size fits well

굽이 높다

the heel is high

치수 is the native Korean word and 사이즈 the borrowed one. Both are printed here because both are used — 사이즈 is what you will hear in a shop, 치수 what you will read on a label or a form.

잘 맞다 is the phrase to memorise whole. 맞다 on its own means 'to be correct'; with 잘 in front of it and a size as the subject it means 'fits'. Answering 잘 맞아요 when an assistant asks 어떠세요? ends the transaction politely.

연습 — 친구들은 무엇을 신었어요? 이야기해 보세요.

후엔 씨가 부츠를 신었어요. 잘 어울려요.

Huyen is wearing boots. They suit her.

신었어요 is past tense but describes a present state — she put the boots on and is still in them. Korean uses the past form for the result of getting dressed, so 뭐 입었어요? asks what someone has on now, not what they wore yesterday.

명이나

Noun + 이나 — 'or', offering a choice

선택할 수 있는 두 가지 이상을 말할 때 사용해요.

Used to name two or more things any of which would do.

- 가 친구 생일이 다음 달이에요. 무슨 선물이 좋아요?
A friend's birthday is next month. What would make a good present?
- 나 옷이나 액세서리를 사 주세요.
Buy them clothes or an accessory.

예문 — Examples

- 가 저는 매운 음식을 잘 못 먹어요.
I'm not good with spicy food.
- 나 그럼 삼계탕이나 칼국수를 드세요.
Then have samgyetang or kalguksu.

저는 버스나 지하철을 타고 회사에 가요.

I go to work by bus or underground.

라민 씨, 토요일이나 일요일에 시간이 있어요? 같이 영화 봐요.

Ramin, are you free on Saturday or Sunday? Let's see a film.

Which form do I use?

- 이나 after a final consonant (받침)
샌들 → 샌들이나 슬리퍼 · 가방 → 가방이나 모자
- 나 after a vowel
커피 → 커피나 주스 · 운동화 → 운동화나 구두

The same 받침 split as 이에요/예요 and 이라고 하다 from chapter 1. Three chapters in, checking the last letter of the noun should be becoming automatic — it decides more grammar in Korean than any other single habit.

이나 attaches to the first noun, not between the two: 옷이나 액세서리, never 옷 이나 액세서리. And only the second noun takes the object particle — 옷이나 액세서리를 사 주세요, with one 를 at the end for the pair.

In a shop this is the polite way to be flexible. 정장 치마나 바지 있어요? tells the assistant you will take either, which is more useful to them than naming one thing and being told they have not got it.

연습 1 — 여러분은 무엇이 좋아요? 이야기해 보세요.

- 가 생일에 무슨 선물을 받고 싶어요?
What would you like to get for your birthday?
- 나 저는 운동화나 모자를 받고 싶어요.
I'd like trainers or a cap.

보기) 선물 — 운동화, 구두, 선글라스, 모자 example: presents — trainers, dress shoes, sunglasses, a cap

1) 여행

travel — the sea, the mountains, an amusement park

2) 음식

food — rice, bread, biscuits, ice cream

3) 집들이 선물

housewarming gifts — toilet roll, a pot plant, a mirror, detergent

The housewarming list is a cultural point, not a random one. Toilet roll and detergent are standard 집들이 presents in Korea — the roll for a life that unrolls smoothly, the detergent for troubles that wash away. Bringing either is thoughtful, not odd.

연습 2 — 다음을 친구에게 묻고 함께 이야기해 보세요.

어떤 신발을 사고 싶어요?

What sort of shoes would you like to buy?

어디에 가고 싶어요?

Where would you like to go?

어떤 음식을 먹고 싶어요?

What sort of food would you like to eat?

무엇을 배우고 싶어요?

What would you like to learn?

어휘와 문법 2

Vocabulary & grammar 2

무엇을 입었어요? 어떤 액세서리를 했어요?

What are they wearing? What accessories have they got on?

입다 — on the body

티셔츠

T-shirt

치마 skirt

코트 coat

조끼 waistcoat, gilet

청바지 jeans

블라우스 blouse

점퍼 jacket, anorak

셔츠 shirt

원피스

dress

바지 trousers

하다 — accessories

스카프 scarf (light, decorative)

귀걸이 earrings

목도리

scarf (warm, winter)

목걸이

necklace

원피스는 not 'one-piece' in the English sense — it is the ordinary Korean word for a dress. 점퍼 likewise means a casual outdoor jacket, not a knitted jumper. Borrowed words in Korean have settled into their own meanings, and guessing from the English is a reliable way to be misunderstood.

귀걸이 and 목걸이 are built the same way: 귀 (ear) and 목 (neck) plus 걸이, 'something hung'. Once you see the pattern the words stop being arbitrary, and 목도리 (neck + wrap) falls out of it too.

Accessories take 하다, the same verb as 공부하다 and 일하다. 목걸이를 했어요 — literally 'did a necklace'. There is no separate verb for putting on jewellery, so 하다 covers all of it.

이 옷이 어때요?

How is this garment?

길이가 짧다

the length is short

길이가 길다

the length is long

편하다

it is comfortable

디자인이 마음에 들다

I like the design

마 마음에 들다 is 'to be to one's liking' — literally 'to enter the heart'. What you like is the subject, so it is 디자인이 마음에 들어요, not 디자인을. It is warmer than 좋아해요 and is the natural thing to say about something you are looking at in a shop.

연습 — 친구와 옷에 대해 이야기해 보세요.

가 옷이 어때요?

How are the clothes?

나 티셔츠는 편하지만 치마는 길이가 좀 짧아요.

The T-shirt is comfortable, but the skirt is a bit short.

지만 returned from chapter 1, doing the same job: virtue first, reservation second. Adding 좀 before the complaint softens it further. 좀 짧아요 is a comment; 짧아요 on its own can sound like a verdict.

동-어 보다

Verb + -어 보다 — trying something, and inviting someone to 경험을 말할 때나 권유할 때 사용해요.

Used to speak of something you have tried, or to suggest that someone try it.

가 이 원피스 디자인이 마음에 들어요. 제 사이즈가 있어요?
I like the design of this dress. Do you have it in my size?

나 네, 이걸로 한번 입어 보세요.
Yes — try this one on.

예문 — Examples

가 제주도 가 봤어요?
Have you been to Jeju?

나 네, 작년 여름에 가 봤어요.
Yes, I went last summer.

라흐만 씨, 한국 음식 중에 삼계탕 먹어 봤어요?
Rahman, have you tried samgyetang among the Korean dishes?

이 운동화가 아주 편해요. 한번 신어 보세요.
These trainers are very comfortable. Do try them on.

The three endings

-아 보다 stem vowel ㅏ or ㅑ
찾다 → 찾아 보다 · 살다 → 살아 보다

-어 보다 any other stem vowel
입다 → 입어 보다 · 쓰다 → 써 보다

-해 보다 하다 verbs
공부하다 → 공부해 보다 · 일하다 → 일해 보다

This is the same 아/어 split you already use for the plain 해요 form. If you can say 입어요, you can say 입어 보세요 — put 보세요 where 요 was. Nothing new has to be memorised, only recombined.

The tense decides the meaning. 가 봤어요 (past) means 'I have been' — an experience you have had. 가 보세요 (imperative) means 'go and see' — a suggestion. Same construction, opposite direction, and the ending is all that separates them.

한번 makes the suggestion light. Literally 'once', it carries the sense of 'just give it a go' and takes the pressure out of the invitation. A shop assistant will nearly always say 한번 입어 보세요 rather than the bare 입어 보세요.

연습 1 — 다른 사람에게 경험을 물어보세요.

가 이링 씨, 한복 입어 봤어요?
Yiling, have you ever worn a hanbok?

나 아니요, 아직 못 입어 봤어요. 한번 입어 보고 싶어요.
No, I haven't had the chance yet. I'd like to try one.

보기) 입다 — 한복, 기모노, 아오자이, 치파오 wearing: hanbok, kimono, ao dai, qipao

1) 운동하다 — 축구, 등산, 농구, 번지 점프 sport: football, hiking, basketball, bungee jumping

2) 여행 가다 — 부산, 제주도, 경주, 외국

travel: Busan, Jeju, Gyeongju, abroad

3) 먹다 — 냉면, 불고기, 삼계탕, 비빔밥

food: naengmyeon, bulgogi, samgyetang, bibimbap

못 입어 봤어요 is the honest answer to most of these, and it is worth having ready. 아직 ('yet') softens it into a plan rather than a refusal — 아직 못 먹어 봤어요, 한번 먹어 보고 싶어요 keeps the conversation going.

연습 2 — 다른 사람에게 권유해 보세요.

한복이 정말 편하고 예뻐요. 한번 입어 보세요.

Hanbok is really comfortable and pretty. Do try one on.

말하기와 듣기

Speaking & listening

후엔 씨가 옷 가게에서 점원과 이야기해요. 다음과 같이 이야기해 보세요.

Huyen is talking to a shop assistant. Practise the exchange.

- 점원 어서 오세요. 어떤 옷을 찾으세요?
Welcome. What sort of clothes are you looking for?
- 후엔 정장 치마나 바지 있어요? 결혼식에서 입을 거예요.
Do you have a formal skirt or trousers? It's for a wedding.
- 점원 네, 이쪽에 있어요. 이건 어떠세요?
Yes, they're over here. How about this one?
- 후엔 바지 허리가 조금 작아요. 더 큰 사이즈 있어요?
The waist is a little tight. Do you have a larger size?
- 점원 그럼 이걸로 한번 입어 보세요.
Then try this one on.

Swap in these sets

1) 정장 치마, 바지 | 결혼식 | 바지 허리가 작다 formal skirt or trousers — for a wedding — the waist is tight

2) 정장 재킷, 셔츠 | 학부모 모임 | 재킷 사이즈가 작다

formal jacket or shirt — for a parents' meeting — the jacket is too small 어서 오세요 is what every shop says as you walk in. It needs no reply — a nod is enough. Learners often freeze trying to answer it, but it is a greeting to the room, not a question to you.

찾으세요 is the honorific of 찾다, so the assistant is being polite to you; you answer in plain 해요 form. This asymmetry is normal in Korean service exchanges and does not mean you have been rude.

The whole exchange is four moves: say what you want, say what it is for, say what is wrong with what you were shown, accept the alternative. Learn it as a sequence and you can buy almost anything, changing only the nouns.

연습 2 — 여러분이 필요한 옷을 친구와 이야기해 보세요.

- 가 주말에 등산을 갈 거예요. 뭘 입는 게 좋을까요?
I'm going hiking at the weekend. What would be good to wear?
- 나 편한 등산 바지나 청바지를 입어 보세요.
Try comfortable hiking trousers or jeans.

듣기 — 잠시드 씨가 점원과 이야기해요. 잘 듣고 답해 보세요.

1) 어떤 옷을 찾아요?

What sort of clothes is he looking for? (four pairs of trousers to choose from: shorts, chino shorts, cargo trousers, black trousers)

2) 잠시드 씨는 옷을 입어 봤어요?

Did Jamshid try the clothes on?

읽기와 쓰기

Reading & writing

다음 글을 읽고 질문에 답해 보세요.

Read the passage and answer the questions.

우리 회사의 작업복 — My company's work clothes

이 옷은 우리 회사의 작업복입니다.

These are my company's work clothes.

우리는 작업복으로 티셔츠, 바지, 조끼를 입습니다.

For work we wear a T-shirt, trousers and a gilet.

이 티셔츠와 바지는 시원하고 편합니다. 땀도 빨리 마릅니다.

The T-shirt and trousers are cool and comfortable. Sweat dries quickly too.

조끼에는 주머니가 많이 있습니다. 그래서 필요한 물건을 넣습니다.

The gilet has a lot of pockets, so I keep the things I need in them.

저는 이 옷이 아주 마음에 듭니다.

I like these clothes very much.

Questions

1) 이 사람은 작업복으로 무슨 옷을 입었어요?

→ 티셔츠, 바지, 조끼를 입었어요

2) 이 작업복은 무엇이 좋아요?

→ 시원하고 편해요. 땀도 빨리 말라요

3) 이 조끼에 무엇이 많이 있어요?

→ 주머니가 많이 있어요

The passage is in the 합니다 style again — 입습니다, 마릅니다, 듭니다. Note that 마음에 들다 becomes 마음에 듭니다, not 들습니다: stems ending in ㄹ drop it before ㅂ니다. The same happens to 살다 → 삽니다 and 만들다 → 만듭니다.

Read this one as a model, not just a text. Two sentences of what you wear, two of why it is good, one of how you feel about it — that is exactly the shape the writing task below asks for.

단어장 — New words

작업복 work clothes, overalls

시원하다

to be cool, refreshing

땀 sweat

마르다 to dry

주머니 pocket

연습 2 — 여러분이 사고 싶은 옷이 있어요? 이유를 써 보세요.

저는 따뜻한 점퍼나 코트를 사고 싶어요. 한국의 날씨가 추워서 자주 감기에 걸려요. 그래서 이번 주말에 쇼핑을 하러 갈 거예요.

I want to buy a warm jacket or a coat. Korean weather is cold, so I catch cold often. That's why I'm going shopping this weekend.

This model answer uses all three of the chapter's pieces at once: 점퍼나 코트 for the choice, 따뜻한 for the description in front of the noun, and 추워서 for the reason. Write your own by replacing the nouns and keeping the frame.

문화와 정보 — 한국의 전통 시장

Culture & information — Korea's traditional markets

한국에는 전통 시장이 많이 있습니다.

Korea has a great many traditional markets.

전통 시장에서는 다양한 물건과 음식을 팝니다.

They sell all sorts of goods and food.

보통 백화점보다 가격이 쌉니다.

Prices are usually cheaper than in a department store.

서울에는 남대문 시장, 광장 시장, 경동 시장, 통인 시장 등이 있습니다.

In Seoul there are Namdaemun, Gwangjang, Gyeongdong and Tongin markets, among others.

여러분도 한국의 전통 시장에 한번 가 보세요.

Do go and see a Korean traditional market for yourself.

거기에서 좋은 물건도 구경하고 맛있는 음식도 먹어 보세요.

Have a look at the goods there, and try the food as well.

보다 here is the comparison particle, not the verb: 백화점보다 싸다 means 'cheaper than a department store'. What you compare against comes first and takes 보다, the reverse of English word order.

The last two sentences are the chapter's grammar in the wild — 가 보세요 and 먹어 보세요. Textbooks usually keep the culture page free of new grammar; here it is deliberately used, so read it as revision rather than decoration.

These markets are worth knowing by name. 남대문 and 광장 are the tourist ones — 광장 for street food, 남대문 for clothes and household goods. 경동 is a medicine and produce market, and 통인 is known for its lunchbox system where you buy tokens and fill a tray from different stalls.

Questions

1) 전통 시장에서 무엇을 팔아요?

→ 다양한 물건과 음식을 팔아요

2) 서울에 있는 전통 시장은 뭐예요?

→ 남대문 시장, 광장 시장, 경동 시장, 통인 시장

3) 여러분 주변에는 어떤 전통 시장이 있어요?

→ What traditional markets are there where you live?

짧아요 [짤바요]

the ㅂ of the ㅃ cluster moves into the next syllable

가 봤어요 [가 봐씨요]

찾으세요 [차즈세요]

ㄷ before a vowel is pronounced, not swallowed

짧다 has two consonants in its 받침, ㅃ. Before a consonant only ㅃ is heard — 짧다 sounds like [짤따] — but before a vowel the ㅂ moves across and you get [짤바요]. This is why the same word can sound quite different in two forms.

찾으세요 [차즈세요] is the general rule at work: a 받침 followed by a vowel slides into the next syllable. It is the single most useful pronunciation habit in Korean, and it applies to nearly every word with an ending attached.
