한국의 인기 여행지 — popular places to travel in Korea

Chapter 9 gave you the past; this one gives you the future. With -을 거예요 you can finally talk about what has not happened yet, which is what turns Korean from describing your life into planning it.

The second point, -고, lets you string those plans together: 수영도 하고 사진도 찍을 거예요. Between them the two make the sentence this chapter is built around — a plan with more than one thing in it.

도입

Warm-up

이 사람들은 휴가에 무슨 계획이 있어요?

What plans do these people have for the holiday?

여러분은 휴가에 무슨 계획이 있어요?

What plans do you have for the holiday?

The page shows three holiday scenes: a family at an amusement park with a Ferris wheel and a zoo gate behind them; a man carrying a surfboard on a city beach; and travellers handing over a gift outside a station with a suitcase beside them. Amusement park, sea, and a trip home — the three kinds of holiday this chapter covers.

계획이 있어요 is "to have a plan", using 있다 rather than a verb like "to plan". Korean prefers to say a plan exists: 무슨 계획이 있어요? — what plans are there? Answer the same way, or answer with the future tense you are about to learn.

Korean has three different words where English says "holiday", and this chapter uses all of them. 휴일 is a day off, including public holidays; 휴가 is leave from work; 방학 is a school or university vacation. A student has 방학, an office worker has 휴가, and everyone has 휴일 on a Sunday.

놀러 가다 introduces a new ending: -러 means "in order to", so 놀러 가다 is "to go in order to have fun". You will meet it properly later; for now note that 놀다 covers hanging out and enjoying yourself, not just children playing.

외식하다 is 외 (outside) + 식 (eating) — one word for what English needs three for. Its opposite is 집밥, home cooking, literally "house rice", which is a word Koreans use with real affection.

열심히 means "hard, diligently" and goes before the verb: 열심히 공부해요. It is one of the most-used adverbs in Korean, and 열심히 하세요 is what a teacher says to a class as they leave.

여러분은 휴일에 뭐 해요? 친구하고 이야기해 보세요.

What do you do on your days off? Talk about it with a classmate.

가 휴일에 뭐 해요?

What do you do on your day off?

나 저는 아이하고 놀이공원에 가요.

I go to an amusement park with my children.

동-을 거예요

Verb + -을 거예요 — the future tense

미래의 일이나 계획을 말할 때 사용해요.

Used to talk about a future event or a plan.

가 이번 휴일에 뭐 할 거예요?
What are you going to do this holiday?

나 놀이공원에 갈 거예요.
I'm going to go to an amusement park.

예문 — Examples

가 저녁에 뭐 먹을 거예요?
What are you going to eat this evening?

나 김치찌개를 먹을 거예요.
I'm going to have kimchi stew.

제이슨 씨는 방학에 태권도를 배울 거예요.
Jason is going to learn taekwondo during the vacation.

-을 거예요 — after a final consonant (받침)

먹다 → 먹을 거예요 will eat

입다 → 입을 거예요 will wear

★ 듣다 → 들을 거예요 will listen — irregular

-ㄹ 거예요 — after a vowel

가다 → 갈 거예요 will go

보다 → 볼 거예요 will watch

★ 만들다 → 만들 거예요
will make — irregular

The 받침 rule again — consonant takes 을, vowel takes ㄹ — but note where the ㄹ goes: it is written into the stem syllable, giving 갈 from 가. This is the same mechanic as -버니다 in chapter 8.

만들다 is starred for a reason that catches everyone. Its stem already ends in ㄹ, and Korean will not stack two, so nothing is added at all: 만들 거예요. Not 만들을 거예요. The same goes for 살다 → 살 거예요 and 놀다 → 놀 거예요.

듣다 is the ㄷ-irregular you have met in every chapter since seven. Before the vowel of 을 the ㄷ becomes ㄹ: 들을 거예요. By now this should be starting to feel automatic.

거예요 comes from 것이예요 — "it is a thing". So 갈 거예요 is literally "it is a going thing", which is why Korean treats the future as a statement about intention rather than a tense proper. In writing you may see the fuller 것입니다.

This form covers both "will" and "am going to", and it carries a sense of intention. For a plain prediction about someone else — the weather, say — Korean has other tools, but for your own plans this is the one.

연습 1 — 후엔 씨는 다음 주에 무엇을 할 거예요? 이야기해 보세요.

가 다음 주 목요일에 뭐 할 거예요?
What are you going to do next Thursday?

나 문화 센터에서 한국 음식을 만들 거예요.
I'm going to make Korean food at the culture centre.

보기) 목요일 — 한국 음식을 만들다

Thursday — make Korean food → 만들 거예요

2) 토요일 — 가족하고 외식하다

Saturday — eat out with the family → 외식할 거예요

1) 금요일 — 친구 집에 놀러 가다

Friday — go round to a friend's → 갈 거예요

3) 일요일 — 마트에서 장을 보다

Sunday — do the shopping at the supermarket → 볼 거예요

문화 센터 are community culture centres attached to department stores and local councils, and they run cheap short courses in cooking, languages and crafts. For someone new to Korea they are one of the easier places to meet people.

연습 2 — 여러분은 다음 주에 뭐 할 거예요? 이야기해 보세요.

어휘와 문법 2

Vocabulary & grammar 2

휴가 때 어디에 갈 거예요? 거기에서 뭐 할 거예요? 이야기해 보세요.

Where are you going on holiday? What will you do there? Talk about it.

바다 — at the sea

수영을 하다 to swim

배를 타다
to take a boat

(바다) 낚시를 하다
to go (sea) fishing

산 — in the mountains

등산을 하다
to hike

캠핑을 하다
to camp

꽃구경을 하다
to go and see the flowers

놀이공원 — at an amusement park

동물을 구경하다
to look at the animals

놀이 기구를 타다
to go on the rides

불꽃놀이를 보다
to watch the fireworks

고향 — back home

고향 친구들을 만나다
to meet friends from home

부모님을 만나다
to see your parents

고향 음식을 먹다
to eat food from home

구경하다 is not quite 보다. 보다 is simply to look; 구경하다 is to look at something as a sight, for pleasure — sightseeing, window shopping, watching the animals at a zoo. 꽃구경 and 동물 구경 are both this word.

타다 turns up three times on this spread — 배를 타다, 놀이 기구를 타다, and back in chapter 9 자전거를 타다. Anything you get on or into takes 타다, from a bicycle to a ferris wheel to an aeroplane.

꽃구경 is a real seasonal activity, not a phrase invented for the textbook. Cherry blossom in early April draws enormous crowds to particular streets and parks, and the forecast for when it will open is genuinely reported on the news.

Notice the last group. For most learners of this book 고향 is another country, so 휴가 means the flight home — which is exactly the reading passage on page 139. The vocabulary is chosen for the people using it.

여러분은 휴가 때 어디에 갈 거예요? 거기에서 뭐 할 거예요?

Where will you go on holiday? What will you do there?

가 휴가 때 어디에 갈 거예요? 거기에서 뭐 할 거예요?
Where will you go on holiday? What will you do there?

나 휴가 때 바다에 갈 거예요. 바다에서 수영을 할 거예요.
I'll go to the sea. I'll swim in the sea.

Watch the two particles doing different jobs in the answer: 바다에 갈 거예요 for going there, 바다에서 수영을 할 거예요 for doing something there. That is the 에 / 에서 pair from chapter 4, and this exercise drills it in every sentence.

동형-고(나열)

Verb/adjective + -고 — listing

두 가지 이상의 일을 연결해서 말할 때 사용해요.

Used to join two or more things together.

가 안젤라 씨, 이번 휴가에 뭐 할 거예요?
Angela, what are you going to do this holiday?

나 산에서 등산도 하고 캠핑도 할 거예요.
I'm going to hike in the mountains and camp too.

예문 — Examples

가 주말에 보통 뭐 해요?
What do you usually do at the weekend?

나 저는 장도 보고 운동도 해요.
I do the shopping and I exercise.

가 한국어 공부는 어때요?
How is studying Korean?

나 한국어 공부는 쉽고 재미있습니다.
Studying Korean is easy and enjoyable.

-고 — attaches straight to the stem

먹다 → 먹고 eats, and 맛있다 → 맛있고 is tasty, and 가다 → 가고 goes, and 크다 → 크고 is big, and

Here is the most important detail on the page, and it is easy to miss: only the last verb carries the tense. 등산도 하고 캠핑도 할 거예요 — 하고 is bare, and 할 거예요 alone marks the future for both halves. Saying 등산도 할 거고 would be wrong at this level.

Like 지만 in chapter 10, -고 has no 받침 rule at all: drop the 다, add 고. And like 지만 it sits at the end of the first clause rather than the start of the second.

Notice the 도 ... 도 pattern in the examples: 등산도 하고 캠핑도, 장도 보고 운동도. Korean often pairs listing 고 with the 도 from chapter 9 to give the sense of "both this and that". It is not required, but it sounds natural.

This 고 lists things that are simply both true. There is another 고 that means "and then", for actions in sequence — you saw it in 고개를 돌리고 in chapter 7. Context separates them, and at this stage you only need the listing one.

연습 1 — 휴가 때 뭐 할 거예요? 이야기해 보세요.

가 휴가 때 뭐 할 거예요?
What are you going to do on your holiday?

나 저는 낮잠도 자고 텔레비전도 볼 거예요.
I'm going to take naps and watch television.

보기) 집에서 낮잠을 자다 · 텔레비전을 보다

nap at home · watch television

2) 운동을 하다 · 한국어를 열심히 공부하다

exercise · study Korean hard

1) 공원에서 사진을 찍다 · 꽃구경을 하다

take photos in the park · see the flowers

3) 부모님을 만나다 · 고향 음식을 먹다

see your parents · eat food from home

Build each answer the same way: first verb bare with 고, second verb in the future. 사진도 찍고 꽃구경도 할 거예요.
Once the pattern is in your ear you can extend it to three items just as easily.

연습 2 — 여러분은 휴가 때 뭐 할 거예요? 두 가지 이상 이야기해 보세요.

말하기와 듣기

Speaking & listening

고천 씨와 라흐만 씨가 휴가 계획을 이야기해요. 다음과 같이 이야기해 보세요.

Gocheon and Rahman are talking about their holiday plans. Practise the conversation below.

고천 이번 휴가에 뭐 할 거예요?

What are you going to do this holiday?

라흐만 부산에 여행을 갈 거예요.

I'm going to take a trip to Busan.

고천 그래요? 거기에서 뭐 할 거예요?

Really? What will you do there?

라흐만 바다에서 수영도 하고 사진도 찍을 거예요.

I'll swim in the sea and take photos too.

Swap in these sets

1) 부산에 여행을 가다 | 바다에서 수영을 하다, 사진을 찍다

travel to Busan | swim in the sea, take photos

2) 강원도에 가다 | 등산을 하다, 캠핑장에서 캠핑을 하다

go to Gangwon-do | hike, camp at a campsite

This four-line exchange is the whole chapter: where you are going in the future tense, then what you will do there, joined with 고. If you learn one dialogue from chapter 12, learn this one.

부산 is Korea's second city and its biggest port, on the south-east coast, about two and a half hours from Seoul by KTX. Its beaches are the reason it appears here — 해운대 in particular is packed every August.

강원도 is the mountainous province in the north-east, and the standard answer when a Korean says they are going hiking or camping. It also has the ski resorts, so it is a holiday destination in winter as much as summer.

그래요? with a rising tone means "really?" and is the everyday way to show you are listening. Said flat, 그래요 means "that's right" or "okay" — the intonation carries the whole difference.

연습 2 — 여러분은 휴가에 뭐 할 거예요? 어디에 갈 거예요? 이야기해 보세요.

듣기 — 제이슨 씨와 라민 씨가 이야기해요. 잘 듣고 답해 보세요.

1) 라민 씨의 방학 계획이에요. 맞으면 ○, 틀리면 X 하세요.

These are Ramin's vacation plans. Mark ○ if correct, X if wrong.

① 한국어 말하기를 연습해요.

He practises speaking Korean.

② 고향 친구를 만나요.

He meets a friend from home.

2) 제이슨 씨는 방학에 무엇을 배울 거예요?

What is Jason going to learn during the vacation?

① 한국말 ② 한국 춤 ③ 한국 노래 ④ 한국 요리

Korean language · Korean dance · Korean songs · Korean cooking

The four options in question 2 all begin with 한국, so the whole answer rests on the second word. Listen past 한국 to 말, 춤, 노래 or 요리 — this is a deliberate test of hearing the part that carries the meaning.

후엔 씨의 글 — Huyen's piece

제 고향은 베트남 하노이입니다. 하노이에 부모님과 오빠, 언니가 있습니다.

My home town is Hanoi in Vietnam. My parents, my older brother and my older sister are there.

저는 다음 주에 하노이에 갈 겁니다. 그래서 부모님 선물을 샀습니다. 인삼차와 화장품을 샀습니다.

I'm going to Hanoi next week, so I bought presents for my parents — ginseng tea and cosmetics.

고향에서 친척들도 만나고 고향 친구들도 만날 겁니다. 빨리 하노이에 가고 싶습니다.

At home I'll see my relatives and my old friends too. I want to get to Hanoi soon.

갈 겁니다 is the formal written version of 갈 거예요 — 것입니다 shortened to 겁니다. Both passages on this page use it, because they are written rather than spoken. Recognise it as the same future tense in its 습니다 clothes.

친척들도 만나고 고향 친구들도 만날 겁니다 is the chapter's grammar in one sentence: 도 ... 도 for "both", 고 joining the two, and only the second verb carrying the future.

인삼차 and 화장품 are the classic things to take home from Korea. Ginseng is a Korean speciality and cosmetics are a major export, so these two turn up in every duty-free bag — the passage is describing a real habit, not inventing one.

Questions on Huyen's piece

1) 후엔 씨는 베트남 가족에게 무엇을 줄 거예요?

What will Huyen give her family in Vietnam? → 인삼차와 화장품을 줄 거예요

2) 후엔 씨는 휴가 때 하노이에서 무엇을 할 거예요?

What will Huyen do in Hanoi? → 친척들과 고향 친구들을 만날 거예요

잠시드 씨의 글 — Jamshid's piece

저는 작년에 한국에 왔습니다. 지금 안산에서 일합니다. 주말에는 한국어도 배웁니다.

I came to Korea last year. I work in Ansan now. At the weekend I also learn Korean.

다음 달에 제 고향 친구가 한국에 올 겁니다. 저는 친구와 같이 여행도 하고 한국 음식도 먹을 겁니다.

Next month a friend from home is coming to Korea. We'll travel together and eat Korean food too.

빨리 친구를 만나고 싶습니다.

I want to see my friend soon.

안산 is a city just south-west of Seoul with one of the largest migrant populations in Korea — its 다문화마을특구 has shops and signs in a dozen languages. Jamshid living and working there is a deliberate, realistic detail.

Both passages end with 빨리 ... 고 싶습니다 — the -고 싶다 from chapter 7 in its formal form. 빨리 means "quickly, soon", and the two together are how you say you can't wait for something.

Questions on Jamshid's piece

1) 잠시드 씨는 주말에 뭐 해요?

What does Jamshid do at the weekend?

① 일해요 ② 여행을 가요 ③ 한국어를 배워요 ④ 한국 친구를 만나요

works · travels · learns Korean ○ · meets Korean friends

2) 잠시드 씨는 고향 친구하고 한국에서 무엇을 할 거예요?

What will Jamshid do in Korea with his friend? → 여행도 하고 한국 음식도 먹을 거예요

Question 1 is a trap of the useful kind. The passage says 지금 안산에서 일합니다 and separately 주말에는 한국어도 배웁니다 — the 는 on 주말에는 marks the contrast. He works during the week; the weekend is the exception.

여러분의 휴가(방학) 계획을 써 보세요.

___부터 ___까지 휴가(방학)입니다. 저는 휴가(방학)에 ___

My holiday runs from ___ to ___. On my holiday I ___

부터 ... 까지 is the "from ... to" pair from chapter 6, back for dates. Fill the template and then keep going as the two passages do: where you will go, who you will see, two things you will do joined with 고, and how you feel about it.

문화와 정보 — 한국의 인기 여행지

Culture & information — Popular places to travel in Korea

여러분은 한국에서 어디에 가 봤습니까?

Where have you been in Korea?

제주도는 자연 경치가 아름답습니다. 부산은 바다가 아름답습니다.

Jeju Island has beautiful natural scenery. Busan has a beautiful sea.

한국의 전통과 역사를 알고 싶습니까? 그러면 전주와 경주에 가세요.

Do you want to know Korea's traditions and history? Then go to Jeonju and Gyeongju.

전주에는 한옥 마을이 있고 경주에는 불국사가 있습니다.

Jeonju has a hanok village and Gyeongju has Bulguksa temple.

그리고 사람들은 서울에서 많이 여행합니다. 남산 서울 타워와 한강 공원, 경복궁에 많이 갑니다.

And people travel a great deal within Seoul, mostly to Namsan Seoul Tower, the Han River parks and Gyeongbokgung palace.

제주도 is the volcanic island off the south coast, and the single most visited place in the country — close enough for a weekend, far enough to feel abroad. Its 한라산 is the highest mountain in South Korea.

경주 was the capital of the Silla kingdom for nearly a thousand years, and the whole city is effectively an open-air museum. 불국사, the temple in the photo, dates from the eighth century and is a UNESCO World Heritage site.

전주 is the same city as the reading passage in chapter 9 — the 한옥 마을 and the bibimbap. The book is quietly reusing places, which is worth noticing: these are the destinations a learner is most likely to be taken to.

가 봤습니까? is 가다 plus -어 보다, "to try doing", in the past. It asks whether you have ever been, not whether you went. You will learn the form properly later; recognise it here as "have you ever ...?"

그러면 means "in that case, then", linking a condition to advice. It is the natural partner of a question like 알고 싶습니까?, and you can use it whenever you are about to make a recommendation.

Questions

1) 한국의 인기 여행지는 어디예요?

Where are Korea's popular destinations? → 제주도, 부산, 전주, 경주, 서울이에요

2) 사람들은 서울에서 어디에 가요?

Where do people go in Seoul? → 남산 서울 타워, 한강 공원, 경복궁에 가요

3) 여러분은 한국에서 어디에 가고 싶어요?

Where would you like to go in Korea?

여행지 is 여행 (travel) + 지 (place), and 인기 means popularity, so 인기 여행지 is a popular destination. That 지 for "place" turns up in many words worth knowing — 목적지 destination, 출발지 point of departure.

발음 · 배운 어휘 확인

Pronunciation · Vocabulary checklist

발음 1 — 다음을 듣고 따라 읽으세요.

될 거예요	[될 꺼예요] swil kkeo-ye-yo
마실 거예요	[마실 꺼예요] ma-sil kkeo-ye-yo
갈 거예요	[갈 꺼예요] gal kkeo-ye-yo

All three show the same thing, and it applies to every future-tense sentence you will ever say: after the ㄹ of -을/ㄹ, the 거 hardens to 꺼. It is written 거예요 and pronounced [꺼예요], always, with no exceptions.

This is tensification again, the rule behind 먹고 → [먹꼬] in chapter 7 and 닭고기 → [닥꼬기] in chapter 8. What makes this instance worth its own page is how often you will need it — the future tense is not a rare form.

발음 2 — 다음을 듣고 연습해 보세요.

- 가 주말에 뭐 할 거예요?
What are you going to do at the weekend?
- 나 집에서 쉴 거예요.
I'm going to rest at home.
- 가 뭐 마실 거예요?
What are you going to drink?
- 나 저는 오렌지 주스를 마실 거예요.
I'll have orange juice.
- 가 금요일에 친구 집에 갈 거예요?
Are you going to your friend's house on Friday?
- 나 아니요, 토요일에 갈 거예요.
No, I'll go on Saturday.

The last exchange shows the future in a yes-no question and a correction. Note that the answer repeats 갈 거예요 rather than saying just 토요일 — Korean prefers to complete the verb even when the answer is only about the day.
