Chapter 17 — Please don't take photographs

This chapter at a glance

주제	Topic 공공장소 — public places
어휘와 문법	Vocabulary & grammar 공공장소, 공공장소에서 하는 일 / 명으로(방향) / 동-지 마세요 — public places and what you do there · pointing a direction · telling someone not to
활동	Activities 길 묻고 답하기, 공공장소의 금지 표지 읽기 — asking and giving directions; reading prohibition signs
문화와 정보	Culture & information 한국의 공공 예절 — public manners in Korea

Every place in this chapter is somewhere you will actually have to go: the bank to change money, the police station for a driving permit, the community centre to sign up for something, the post office to send a parcel. The vocabulary is the errand list of a first year in Korea.

The two grammar points are what you need once you are inside the building. 으로 points — go right, go up, go that way. -지 마세요 forbids — don't smoke, don't photograph, don't walk on the grass. One gets you there; the other is written on the sign when you arrive.

도입

Warm-up

여기는 어디예요? 사람들이 여기에서 뭐 해요?

Where is this? What are the people doing here?

여러분은 언제 여기에 갔어요? 뭐 했어요?

When did you last go somewhere like this? What did you do?

Three public places. A government office under a 민원담당 sign — the civil affairs desk — with staff behind the counter, someone handing over a form and a man waiting in a chair. A museum entrance where people queue at the ticket window. And inside the museum, a woman holding a camera beside a red no-photography sign, which is the picture the chapter is named after.

민원 is a citizen's request or application to a public office, and 민원담당 is the desk that handles them. You will see the word on every 주민 센터 and 구청 counter, usually beside a ticket machine that issues you a number.

여기는 어디예요? is the natural way to ask where you are or what a place is. Note that it takes 는, not 가 — the place is the topic, and 어디 is the new information. 여기가 어디예요? is also heard, and sounds slightly more urgent, closer to "where on earth is this?"

어휘와 문법 1

Vocabulary & grammar 1

어디에 가요? 무엇을 할 거예요?

Where are you going? What are you going to do?

보기 은행 · 환전하다 → 어디에 가요? 은행에 가요. / 무엇을 할 거예요? 환전할 거예요.

Model: bank · change money → Where are you going? To the bank. / What will you do? Change some money.

공공장소 — public places and what you do there

백화점 · 선물을 사다

department store · buy a present

박물관 · 역사 공부를 하다

museum · study history

주민 센터 · 수영반에 등록하다

community centre · sign up for a swimming class

주차장 · 주차하다

car park · park the car

경찰서 · 국제 운전면허증을 받다

police station · get an international driving permit

우체국 · 소포를 보내다

post office · send a parcel

주민 센터 is the single most useful building on this page. It is your neighbourhood administrative office — you register your address there, collect official certificates, and sign up for the cheap classes it runs, which is exactly the 수영반 in this exercise. Its full name is 행정복지센터, but nobody calls it that.

환전하다 is to change currency, and it is worth knowing precisely because you will need it: 환전 is the noun, 환전소 the exchange booth, 환율 the exchange rate. Banks do it, and so do the small booths in Myeongdong and near the airports.

An international driving permit is issued by the 경찰서 in Korea, not by a motoring organisation — that catches people out. Note also that 면허증 is the licence document itself, 면허 the licence as a right, and 증 is the suffix on almost every ID card: 학생증, 신분증, 외국인등록증.

Every answer here uses 할 거예요, the -을 거예요 future from chapter 12. The question 무엇을 할 거예요? and the reply 환전할 거예요 are the same verb in the same tense, which is what makes this drill easy: repeat the question's verb and swap the ending.

명으로(방향)

Noun + 으로 (direction)

이동의 목적지나 방향을 나타낼 때 사용해요.

Used to indicate the destination or direction of movement.

가 주차장이 어디에 있어요?

Where is the car park?

나 건물 뒤에 있어요. 오른쪽으로 가세요.

It's behind the building. Go to the right.

예문 — examples

가 수영반 등록은 어디에서 해요?

Where do I sign up for the swimming class?

나 저기 사무실에서 해요. 왼쪽으로 가세요.

At the office over there. Go to the left.

식당은 7층에 있어요. 위로 올라가세요.

The restaurant is on the seventh floor. Go up.

으로 · 로

공원 → 공원으로

after a consonant → 으로

3층 → 3층으로

층 ends in ㅇ, so 으로

아래 → 아래로

after a vowel → 로

교실 → 교실로

after ㄹ → 로, not 으로

You have met this particle before. In chapter 13 으로 marked the means — 버스로 가요, I go by bus. Here it marks the direction. It is the same particle doing a second job, and context tells them apart without effort: a vehicle or a tool means "by", a place or a direction means "towards".

으로 and 에 are not interchangeable, and the difference is worth getting right. 에 marks the destination you arrive at; 으로 marks the direction you head in. 학교에 가요 is going to school; 학교로 가세요 is "head towards the school". With 오른쪽 or 위 you can only use 으로, because a direction is not somewhere you arrive.

The ending choice is the familiar one, with the familiar exception. After a consonant it is 으로; after a vowel it is 로; and after ㄹ it is 로, not 으로 — 교실로, 서울로. That is the same behaviour ㄹ has shown in -을 거예요, -으러 and -을까요?: it counts as a vowel and keeps the 으 away.

올라가다 is to go up and 내려가다 to go down, both built on 가다. Pair them with 위로 and 아래로 and you can direct anyone through a building: 위로 올라가세요, 아래로 내려가세요.

1 무엇을 할 거예요? 어디에 있어요? 이야기해 보세요.

1 What are you going to do? Where is it? Talk about it.

보기 운전면허증을 받다 · 오른쪽 → 어디에서 운전면허증을 받아요? / 저기 오른쪽으로 가세요.

Model: get a driving licence · right → Where do I get a driving licence? / Go over to the right there.

1) 과일을 사다 · 지하 1층

buy fruit · first basement floor

2) 환전을 하다 · 위층

change money · the floor above

3) 소포를 보내다 · 옆

send a parcel · next door

지하 1층 is the first basement level, what a lift button would call B1. Korean counts downwards with 지하 1층, 지하

2층 and so on, and department store food halls are almost always 지하 1층 — which is why the fruit is there.

2 여러분의 교실에서 다음 장소에 어떻게 가요? 이야기해 보세요.

2 How do you get from your classroom to these places? Talk about it.

센터 사무실

the centre office

화장실

the toilets

편의점

the convenience store

선생님 방

the teachers' room

센터 사무실은 1층에 있어요. 아래층으로 가세요.

The centre office is on the first floor. Go down a floor.

Note that this exercise wants real directions to real places in your own building. That makes it the most useful speaking task in the chapter — the sentences you produce here are ones you can use the same afternoon.

어휘와 문법 2

Vocabulary & grammar 2

공원에서 사람들이 무엇을 해요?

What are the people doing in the park?

공원에서 — in the park

주차하다 to park

잔디밭에 들어가다

to walk on the grass

뛰다 to run

쓰레기를 버리다

to throw away rubbish

꽃을 만지다

to touch the flowers

사진을 찍다

to take photographs

담배를 피우다

to smoke

Every one of these will turn up on a sign with a red line through it on the next page, and that is deliberate. Learn them here as plain actions, and the prohibitions become readable the moment you meet them.

담배를 피우다 is literally to "bloom" tobacco — 피우다 is the causative of 피다, the same 피다 that flowers do in 꽃이 피다. Korean also uses it for lighting a fire. There is no separate verb for smoking.

잔디밭 is a lawn: 잔디 grass plus 밭, a field or plot. The same 밭 appears in 꽃밭, a flower bed. And note that you 들어가다 into a lawn — Korean treats the grass as a space you enter, not a surface you step on.

쓰레기를 버리다 is neutral — it means to throw rubbish away, which is what the man at the bin is doing. In a prohibition it becomes littering. The sign on the reading page uses the sharper noun 쓰레기 투기, illegal dumping.

여러분은 공원에서 무엇을 해요? 무엇을 못 해요? 이야기해 보세요.

What can you do in the park, and what can't you? Talk about it.

공원에서 사진을 찍어요.

I take photographs in the park.

공원에서 담배를 못 피워요.

You can't smoke in the park.

공원에서 꽃을 못 만져요.

You can't touch the flowers in the park.

This page deliberately uses 못, the "cannot" from chapter 14, and not the new -지 마세요. The difference is who is speaking: 못 피워요 reports a fact about the park, while 피우지 마세요 tells a person to stop. The book gives you the fact first and the instruction on the next page.

동-지 마세요

Verb + -지 마세요

듣는 사람에게 어떤 행동을 금지시킬 때 사용해요.

Used to forbid the listener from doing something.

뛰지 마세요

No running — the sign in the corridor

예문 — examples

가 버스 정류장에서 담배를 피우지 마세요.

Please don't smoke at the bus stop.

나 아, 죄송합니다.

Oh — I'm sorry.

공연장 안에서 사진을 찍지 마세요.

Please don't take photographs inside the auditorium.

-지 마세요

먹다 → 먹지 마세요

to eat → don't eat

쓰다 → 쓰지 마세요

to write, to use → don't write, don't use

듣다 → 듣지 마세요

to listen → don't listen

타다 → 타지 마세요

to ride → don't ride

-지 마세요 is the negative of -으세요, and it is much simpler to form. It attaches straight to the stem with no 으 inserted, whatever the stem ends in: 먹지 마세요, not 먹으지 마세요. Compare 먹으세요, which does need the extra vowel. The negative is the easy one.

Notice that 듣다 stays 듣지 마세요 and does not become 들지. The ㄷ-irregular you met in chapter 9 only fires before a vowel, and 지 begins with a consonant, so the stem is left alone. Irregular verbs behave regularly in front of consonant endings.

마세요 comes from the verb 말다, to stop or desist, in its polite command form. 말 + 으세요 loses the ㄹ before ㅏ and becomes 마세요. That is the third place you have watched a ㄹ vanish — before ㄴ in 사네요 and 사는 것, and now before ㅏ.

The formal written version is -지 마십시오, and that is what you will read on printed signs and hear in announcements. Same meaning, higher register. You will meet it in this chapter's culture text.

1 여기에서 무엇을 못해요? 그림을 보고 이야기해 보세요.

1 What can't you do here? Look at the pictures and talk about it.

보기 교실 · 담배를 피우다 → 교실에서 담배를 피우지 마세요.

Model: classroom · smoke → Please don't smoke in the classroom.

1) 버스 정류장 · 주차하다

bus stop · park

2) 강 · 수영하다

river · swim

3) 미술관 · 사진을 찍다

art gallery · take photographs

4) 도서관 · 음식을 먹다

library · eat food

5) 잔디밭 · 들어가다

the grass · walk on it

Read the exercise heading carefully: it asks 무엇을 못해요, what you cannot do, but the model answer is a 마세요 sentence. The book is showing you the two sides of the same sign — what the rule is, and how you would say it to somebody who is breaking it.

2 교실에서 선생님이 무슨 말을 해요? 이야기해 보세요.

2 What does your teacher say in class? Talk about it.

수업에 늦지 마세요.

Don't be late for class.

시험 시간에 말하지 마세요.

Don't talk during the exam.

늦다 is to be late, and it takes 에 for the thing you are late for: 수업에 늦다, 약속에 늦다. It is a descriptive verb, so 늦었어요 can mean both "I was late" and "it has got late" — which is exactly how it was used back in chapter 15's 시간이 늦었네요.

말하기와 듣기

Speaking & listening

1 라흐만 씨가 길을 찾고 있어요. 다음과 같이 이야기해 보세요.

1 Rahman is trying to find his way. Practise the conversation below.

라흐만 실례지만 주민 센터가 어디에 있어요?

Excuse me — where is the community centre?

여자 오른쪽으로 조금만 가세요.

Just go a little way to the right.

라흐만 버스를 타요?

Should I take a bus?

여자 아니요. 버스를 타지 마세요. 바로 저기예요.

No, don't take a bus. It's right there.

이렇게 바꿔서 연습해 보세요 — practise with these substitutions

1) 주민 센터 | 버스를 타다

community centre | take a bus

2) 역사 박물관 | 길을 건너다

history museum | cross the road

실례지만 is how you stop a stranger — "excuse me, but...". It is built from 실례, a discourtesy, so you are apologising for the interruption before you make it. Say it before the question, never after, and it will carry you through any request for directions.

조금만 is "just a little", with the 만 meaning only. 오른쪽으로 조금만 가세요 promises a short walk, which is what makes the reply reassuring. Korean uses 만 constantly to soften a request: 잠깐만요, just a moment.

바로 means "right, directly, immediately" — 바로 저기예요, it's right over there. It also works with time (바로 지금, right now) and with sequence (바로 다음, the very next one). A small word that sharpens whatever follows it.

The whole exchange is the chapter in four lines: ask with 실례지만, receive a direction with 으로, and get corrected with -지 마세요. Note that the woman's 타지 마세요 is not a rebuke — it simply saves him a pointless bus fare.

2 여러분은 어디에 가요? 거기에 어떻게 가요? 친구와 이야기해 보세요.

2 Where are you going? How do you get there? Talk about it with a classmate.

듣기 — 라민 씨와 경찰관이 이야기해요. 잘 듣고 답해 보세요.

1) 라민 씨는 무엇을 타요?

What is Ramin going to take?

2) 라민 씨는 지금 어디에 있어요?

Where is Ramin now?

경찰관 is a police officer as a job title; 경찰 alone is the police as an institution. In Korea, asking a police officer or a 지구대 — the small neighbourhood station — for directions is completely ordinary, and they are used to helping foreign residents.

읽기와 쓰기

Reading & writing

1 다음 글을 읽고 질문에 답해 보세요.

1 Read the notice and answer the questions.

등산 안내문 — hiking notice

취사 금지! 음식을 만들지 마세요.

No cooking! Please do not prepare food.

수영 금지! 수영을 하지 마세요.

No swimming! Please do not swim.

쓰레기 투기 금지! 쓰레기를 버리지 마세요.

No dumping! Please do not leave rubbish.

야영 금지! 캠핑을 하지 마세요.

No camping! Please do not camp.

낚시 금지! 낚시를 하지 마세요.

No fishing! Please do not fish.

설악산 국립 공원 사무소

Seoraksan National Park Office

Look at the shape of every line: a noun plus 금지, then the same thing again as a -지 마세요 sentence. Real signs usually print only the first half, because 금지 is short enough to fit on a pictogram. Learning the noun is what lets you read the sign; the second half is the book teaching you to say it.

금지 means prohibition, and it attaches to a bare noun with no particle: 주차 금지, 촬영 금지, 출입 금지. Once you recognise the word you can decode almost any Korean sign, because the noun in front of it is nearly always a Sino-Korean word you can look up.

취사 is cooking in the specific sense of preparing food outdoors or in temporary quarters — it is not the everyday word for cooking, which is 요리. That distinction is exactly what question 2 tests.

설악산 is one of Korea's best-known national parks, in Gangwon province on the east coast, and it is the classic destination for 단풍 in October. 산 means mountain, so the name already contains it — Koreans still say 설악산에 가요 rather than treating 설악 as the name.

1) "캠핑을 못 해요."와 같은 것을 고르세요.

1) Choose the item that means the same as "You can't camp."

① 낚시 금지

no fishing

② 취사 금지

no cooking

③ 야영 금지

no camping — ○, this is the answer

④ 쓰레기 투기 금지

no dumping

야영 and 캠핑 are the same activity in two registers: 야영 is the Sino-Korean word used on official signs, 캠핑 the English loanword used in conversation. Signs prefer 야영, people say 캠핑, and the notice helpfully prints both.

2) 여기에서 무엇을 못 해요?

2) What can't you do here?

① 음식을 못 먹습니다.

You can't eat food

② 요리를 못 합니다.

You can't cook — ○, this is the answer

③ 이야기를 못 합니다.

You can't talk

④ 사진을 못 찍습니다.

You can't take photographs

The trap is option ①. The notice forbids 취사, preparing food, not eating it — you may perfectly well eat a packed lunch on Seoraksan. Read what the sign prohibits, not what it merely reminds you of.

3) 여기는 어디예요?

3) Where is this?

① 바다

the sea

② 박물관

a museum

③ 동물원

a zoo

④ 국립 공원

a national park — ○, this is the answer

The answer is signed at the bottom of the notice — 설악산 국립 공원 사무소. When a Korean reading question asks 여기는 어디예요?, the letterhead or the signature line is usually where the answer is hiding.

2 한국어 수업 시간에 무엇을 못 해요? 교실 안내문을 써 보세요.

2 What can't you do during Korean class? Write a notice for the classroom.

✓ 수업 시간에 음식을 먹지 마세요.

✓ Please don't eat during class.

One line is given and four are blank. Use the classroom verbs you already have — 늦다, 말하다, 자다, 전화하다, 담배를 피우다 — and keep every line in the same -지 마세요 shape, the way a real notice would.

설악산 국립 공원

Seoraksan National Park

동물원 is 동물, animal, plus 원, a garden or enclosed grounds. The same 원 gives you 공원 a park, 유치원 a kindergarten and 병원 a hospital — a suffix worth recognising, because it tells you the word names a place.

문화와 정보 — 한국의 공공 예절

Culture & information — public manners in Korea

한국에서는 버스나 지하철에서 공공 예절을 지켜야 합니다.

In Korea you are expected to observe public manners on buses and the subway.

버스나 지하철에는 교통 약자석이 있습니다.

Buses and subway trains have priority seats.

여기에는 노인, 임산부, 장애가 있는 사람들이 앉습니다.

These are for elderly people, pregnant women and people with disabilities.

버스와 지하철에서는 음료수와 음식을 먹지 않습니다.

People do not eat or drink on buses and the subway.

그리고 큰 소리로 통화하지 않습니다.

And they do not talk loudly on the phone.

그리고 다리를 벌리고 앉지 마십시오.

And please do not sit with your legs spread wide.

공공장소에서는 다른 사람들을 배려해야 합니다.

In public places you should be considerate of others.

교통 약자석 is literally a seat for the "transport-weak" — 약자 means the vulnerable or disadvantaged. The seats sit at the ends of each carriage under a distinctive grey-and-blue sign, and the convention is stronger than in many countries: they are usually left empty even when the train is full, rather than occupied and then vacated.

The pink seats are a separate thing again. 임산부 배려석, the pregnancy priority seat, is marked in bright pink on Seoul's subway and is meant to stay empty at all times, so that a pregnant passenger never has to ask. The campaign slogan on the badge reads 내일의 주인공을 맞이하는 핑크카펫 — a pink carpet welcoming tomorrow's protagonist.

다리를 벌리고 앉다 is sitting with the legs spread across neighbouring seats, and the text prohibits it outright. Notice that this is the one instruction in the passage written as a command, 앉지 마십시오, rather than as a description — the formal sign register from earlier in the chapter.

-지 않습니다 in the middle of this passage is a statement, not an instruction: 먹지 않습니다 says people do not eat, describing what is done. Set it against 앉지 마십시오, which tells you not to. The passage moves from describing the custom to instructing you in it, and the endings are how it does that.

배려 is consideration for other people — thinking of them before yourself — and it is the word the whole passage builds to. 배려하다 to be considerate, 배려석 a consideration seat. If you take one word from this page, take this one.

-아야 하다 means "must, should": 지켜야 합니다, 배려해야 합니다. You will learn it properly later; for now recognise the shape, because it is how every rule and obligation in Korean is phrased.

질문 — questions

1) 한국 지하철과 버스의 교통 약자석에는 누가 앉아요?

Who sits in the priority seats? → 노인, 임산부, 장애가 있는 사람들이 앉아요

2) 한국 지하철과 버스에서 무엇을 하지 않아요?

What do people not do? → 음료수와 음식을 먹지 않고 큰 소리로 통화하지 않아요

3) 공공 예절에는 또 어떤 것이 있어요?

What other public manners are there?

박물관 [방물관]

bang-mul-gwan

못 만져요 [몬 만져요]

mon man-jeo-yo

등록 [등녹]

deung-nok

The first two are the nasalisation rule from chapter 15, met again in new words: a stop before a nasal becomes the matching nasal. ㄱ before ㅁ turns into ㅇ, so 박물관 is [방물관]. ㅅ before ㅁ turns into ㄴ, so 못 만져요 is [몬 만져요]. If you learned 작년 [장년] and 출네요 [춤네요] last time, these two cost you nothing new.

등록 [등녹] is a different rule. After ㅇ or ㅁ, an initial ㄹ becomes ㄴ — so 등록 sounds like 등녹, and 정류장 like [정뉴장]. It runs through a great many Sino-Korean words, and it is the reason 대통령 comes out as [대통녕].

발음 2 — 다음을 듣고 연습해 보세요.

박물관은 어디에 있어요?

공원에서 꽃을 못 만져요.

All three practice sentences are built from this chapter's own vocabulary, and each carries one of the three sounds above. Say them at speed rather than syllable by syllable — the changes only happen when the words run together.
